Footnotes

JALA JALA (MEX) saved ground early, lost some position while allowed to settle up the backstretch, began moving inside heading to the far turn, moved out three wide advancing steadily under her own power, caught JOYME with a quarter-mile to go, drew well clear five wide through upper stretch and ran up the score while kept to a drive. FRAY ANGELICO (PAN) was four wide early before moving in a bit, raced in midpack up the backstretch, came under pressure with a half-mile remaining, improved position around the far turn, and kept on gamely outside to go clear for the runner-up spot late. JOYME (MEX) pressed the pace three wide outside PLATINO coming off the first turn, reached a short lead at the three-eighths pole, could not fend off the winner nearing the stretch, and was outfinished for second. INMENSO (DOM) steadied slightly three then two wide on the first turn, began finding his best stride three wide between horses approaching the stretch, moved inside and finished with interest on the rail. JUSTICIERO fanned out five wide coming off the initial bend, raced widest up the backstretch, rallied past rivals four then three wide around the far turn, and flattened out. SENALERO (PAN) raced two to three wide between horses heading to the far turn, and lacked a serious bid. INSPIRATO (MEX) moved off the rail to the two-path after six furlongs, and posed no threat. LA DE HORACIO (VEN) faded steadily after six furlongs while mostly three wide. EL CUBITA (VEN) raced well out in the track, dropped back while being asked for a response into the far turn, came six wide past the quarter-pole and made no impact. TUKI MONTON (VEN) chased the leaders four wide early, could not keep up before going six furlongs and dropped far back. GATILLO (PAN) steadied slightly three wide early on the backstretch, and was finished after six furlongs. PLATINO sprinted out to the lead in the two-path, was overtaken three furlongs out, and stopped on the rail.
